

1. In reviewing the class goals for Introduction to Religion, which goals do you think we are accomplishing?
2. Which goals do we need to work at more intentionally i.e., which ones need more emphasis and attention?
3. Which of the teaching/learning techniques (readings, lectures, discussions, videos) have been very helpful in your learning?

Which have been least helpful?

4. Of the required texts and readings, which have been most interesting and helpful in your study of religion?
5. What do you like most about the course?
6. What do you like least about the course?
7. What could your instructor do to improve the course?

8. What could you do to make the course more effective and interesting?

Thank you for your honest evaluation.

Rosemary Rader